Reflection

Fear stalks us daily. The world in which we live can undermine our trust in God. It is easy to become attached to things of this world, even though they give us only a fleeting pleasure or temporary security before they pass away, disappear, or vanish. Since our heart is made for God, for the infinite, when we become attached to something, not of God, the result is fear. This is a fear of the future and a fear of the unknown. But with God, we know the ending, and we know what awaits us. Listen to those words: 'Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.' All that we see and enjoy around us will pass away, but not Christ's promises, namely the promises of eternal life – of paradise. The grace of God ripens us. The moment we are baptised, we are made ready to see God. But there is a lesson, and it might be a bit scary. When Jesus spoke about the fig tree in today's Gospel, he may have thought of another fig tree – the one that bore no fruit, withered, dried up and died. Christ shocked them that time. We don't know when Christ will pass by the fig tree of our life, looking to pick the fruit of our virtues. However, we can be assured of this: The time will come. Our baptism has made our lifetime a time of harvest. You have all eternity to rest in the house of the Father. The lesson: Bear fruit now; live virtue now. Christ came to give life and give it abundantly.

November: A Month of Prayer for the Faithful Departed.

Our annual Prayer Service for all our deceased loved ones will take place in St Mary's Church Castleblayney this coming Thursday (Nov 21st) at 7.30pm. We extend a welcome to everyone and encourage you to come along and pray for your dead.

Grant eternal rest, O Lord, to the souls of our departed loved ones and let perpetual light shine on them.

Lord, be a comforting presence to those mourning, assuring them of your love and the eternal peace offered to the departed.
May the departed souls find a peaceful journey into your loving embrace, guided by your mercy and grace.
